

Please do not preempt the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. It has been so nice not to have one, two, and three phone calls night after night, and week after week all year long. These seem like they always come at meal time.